PENSIERO DOMENICALE

Carissimi. Per paura dei Giudei, gli apostoli stavano chiusi in una casa di Gerusalemme, con le porte sbarrate. Improvvisamente Cristo appare in mezzo a loro: li tranquillizza, soffia su di loro e dice: "Ricevete lo Spirito Santo". Cinquanta giorni dopo, il mattino di Pentecoste, lo Spirito Santo irrompe su di loro sotto forma di lingue di fuoco. Da quel momento, la paura che li tiene legati, si dissolve: diventano i messaggeri del vangelo, in grado di portare la sua luce fino ai confini della terra.

Questo soffio di vento e di fuoco non e' mai cessato. L'ultimo Concilio ne ha ravvivato l'impeto. Tutti noi siamo chiamati a lasciarci conquistare dallo Spirito, per diventare messaggeri e portatori della buona novella ai nostri fratelli e sorelle.

LIVING THE GOSPEL

The gift of the Holy Spirit - our living connection to Christ

It is a great day in the life of the Church as we celebrate PENTECOST – Jesus' gift of the Holy Spirit in our personal lives and in our Church Community. We recall the powerful events in Jerusalem on that first Pentecost Sunday. Disciples who were frightened and behind locked doors received the gift of the Holy Spirit. Confident and courageous, they were unified in mission and purpose.

St Paul reminds us that the Holy Spirit is active in the ordinary moments and events in the life of the Church and her members. It is this gift of the Holy Spirit that can bring us back to a living faith, to a renewed trust in God, and enable us to pray sincerely, honestly and powerfully.

We often take these gifts of the Holy Spirit for granted but this Holy Spirit is always at work deep inside us, taking the broken parts of us and unifying all aspects of our lives to ensure a focus on Christ. The Holy Spirit is for each one of us our living connection to Christ. It is present whenever we show courage in the living Gospel, and is truly the Lord and Giver of Life to the Church and to our souls.

The Holy Spirit is for every life and for every age a source of renewal, offering us courage for a new start. Whenever dark things happen in our lives, or in the life of the Church, we are consoled by the presence of the Holy Spirit bringing light and Easter hope into our lives.

Fr. Phil
