LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isa 49: 3, 5-6

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

I will make you the light of the nations so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel,

in whom I shall be glorified';

I was honoured in the eyes of the Lord, my God was my strength.

And now the Lord has spoken, he who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, to gather Israel to him:

'It is not enough for you to be my servant, to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back the survivors of Israel;

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESP PSALM

Ps 39: 2, 4, 7-10. R. vv. 8, 9

R. Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

1. I waited, I waited for the Lord / and he stooped down to me; / he heard my cry. / He put a new song into my mouth, / praise of our God. R.

2. You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, / but an open ear. / You do not ask for holocaust and victim. / Instead, here am I. R.

3. In the scroll of the book it stands written / that I should do your will. / My God, I delight in your law / in the depth of my heart. R.

4. Your justice I have proclaimed / in the great assembly. / My lips I have not sealed; / you know it, O Lord. R.

SECOND READING

1 Cor 1: 1-3

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians.

The grace and peace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

I, Paul, appointed by God to be an apostle, together with brother Sosthenes, send greetings to the church of God in Corinth, to the holy people of Jesus Christ, who are called to take their place among all the saints everywhere who pray to our Lord Jesus Christ; for he is their Lord no less than ours. May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Jn 1: 14, 12

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us.

He enabled those who accepted him to become the children of God.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Jn 1: 29-34

P. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

P. A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

R. Glory to you, O Lord.

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

Seeing Jesus coming towards him, John said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world. This is the one I spoke of when I said: A man is coming after me who ranks before me because he existed before me. I did not know him myself, and yet it was to reveal him to Israel that I came baptising with water.' John also declared, 'I saw the Spirit coming down on him from heaven like a dove and resting on him. I did not know him myself, but he who sent me to baptise with water had said to me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and rest is the one who is going to baptise with the Holy Spirit." Yes, I have seen and I am the witness that he is the Chosen One of God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

THE LAMB OF GOD

The historical memory between John the Baptist and Jesus identified in last Sunday's Gospel from Matthew continues in today's Gospel from John. Themes from last week continue: John the Baptist declares Jesus' pre-existence (1:30), a central theological motif in the Gospel, as God's chosen one, and as the bearer of God's Spirit (1:33). The Baptist also publicly attests to Jesus' holiness using Jewish expressions drawn out of the Passover and Exodus story. Jesus is called 'the lamb of God' (1:29). This evokes the memory of the Passover lamb. This was the lamb sacrificed in the Exodus event (Exodus 12:1-13) whose blood daubed the lintels of the doors identifying its Jewish residents as God's protected ones as the Angel of Death passed over them.

In John's Gospel, Jesus' blood will also become the life-giving and liberating agent that creates the new community formed around the Mother of Jesus and the Beloved Disciple at Jesus' death (19:26-35). At the beginning of this Gospel and in today's reading, John the Baptist becomes the Gospel's witness to the holy and elevated status of Jesus as God's representative who can 'take away the sin of the world' (1:29). In other words and again drawing on a Jewish atonement ritual performed on one of the holiest days in the Jewish Calendar, Yom Kippur (literally, 'the Day of Atonement'), Jesus becomes the scapegoat for people's sins to release them from the burdens they carry and bring them to life and freedom—another theme of John's Gospel. All these insights associated with today's Gospel are key for us: we look to one who can represent us before God, release us of sins that weigh us down, and offer us life and spiritual agency.

Words from the desk of the PP:

Beauty in Unexpected Places: Hazard? The Beauty of God?

In a world where we need to remain alert for danger, my instant thought when I saw all the dead bark was “fire hazard.” Then I looked again and saw: beauty – the colours of the bark with such subtle variations; the ‘almost patterns’ that please the eye like the shapes in a cloud; new growth that is happening around it at the same time as the bark dies; the near infinite variety of shapes of the bark with no two pieces the same yet it is all knowable as ‘bark.’ And what about the beauty of the setting of the sun refracted through a glass of wine – the rich subtlety and variation of the colours. I am sure you stop and see God’s hand at work around you, but this past week provided some lovely reminder: God lifts the heart, enlivens the spirit within. Praise the Lord!

Receiving Communion: In order to ensure respectful receiving of Holy Communion with minimal chances of mistakes (e.g.: fumbling/dropping the Host, your tongue putting saliva on the minister’s fingers, tripping up others) let me clarify the actions we make during communion:

The gesture of respect as you approach Holy Communion is recommended to be made as the person ahead of you is receiving communion. This means you are not bowing as the minister distributes Christ to you.

When receiving on the hand: please make sure you come close enough that the minister can easily place the host on your hands; come to a complete stop and hold your hands still; cross your hands clearly so the minister knows where to place the host to ensure it isn’t dropped. Don’t bow as the host is placed on your hand as that means your hands move and the host can be dropped.

When receiving on the tongue: walk up, stop, put your tongue out enough (about 1-2cm) to receive the host: remain still, allow the minister to place the host on your tongue – don’t move your head/mouth to try to take the host yourself: allow the minister to place the host – allow the minister to take their hand away, then move and take the host into your mouth and consume it.

When kneeling and receiving on the tongue: make it clear you are going to kneel by taking a large step forward to be clear of those behind, kneel, receive communion as above, and stand without stepping to the rear. One option is to come to Communion last or near last so that there is plenty of space around you.

Always consume Communion immediately, don’t walk off, stop a moment in silence after receiving and consume – then walk to your place.

Leaves and Dead Wood: Do you have a rake, and some energy? I need some able bodies to do some clearing up. There is a large amount of leaves on the car park and quite a lot of light dead wood in the treed area uphill from the car park. Can you please be available next Saturday 17th January, in the morning from 8:00 am onwards till midday (any time you have in that period and help collecting leaves / gathering & breaking up the light dead wood and getting it into the skip? Let the office know if possible or just turn up.

God bless, Fr Charles.

Fr Charles' Prayer Intention for this week:
