Dear Parishioners,

We are nearing the end of 2023 and it has been a big year for our parish as well as Passionist Community.

In July deacon TP from Vietnam joined the St Paul Apostle Community.

He will be here for approximate 2 yrs and will be ordained a priest in July 2024. Deacon Tuan will be a huge help to Fr Brendan and Fr Luke in serving our community.

In early July the Australian Passionist Congregation had their 4-yearly chapter in Sydney where Fr Denis Travers was elected as provincial. Sadly, our beloved Fr Brian Gleesson who had served this community since 2001. passed away peacefully on September 7th.

During this year we have also initiated 2 different age groups for our Youth group (17-25 years old group and grade 5 to year 9 group) which we will endeavour to continue in the new year. Another group which was started this year is the adoration group. There have been many other events throughout the year that respond to the varied needs of our community. We are pleased to see that our numbers have increased and so to our baptism!!!

We thank all volunteers and the entire parish community for always being open to help, to be involved and supportive in everything we try to do for the community.

We wish everyone a blessed Christmas and a healthy, happy and prosperous New Year in 2024

Blessing
