During 2026 our focus as a community of faith will be based on the image of the Trinity. An image reflecting the community of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, calling us to be community of WELCOME and HOSPITALITY.

The Living Word

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

5 July 2026

First Reading Zec 9:9-10

See how humbly your king comes to you!

The Lord says this:

'Rejoice heart and soul, daughter of Zion!
Shout with gladness, daughter of Jerusalem!
See now, your king comes to you;
he is victorious, he is triumphant,
humble and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
He will banish chariots from Ephraim
and horses from Jerusalem;
the bow of war will be banished.
He will proclaim peace for the nations.
His empire shall stretch from sea to sea,
from the River to the ends of the earth.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 144:1-2, 8-11, 13-14, R. v.1

(R.) *I will praise your name for ever,
my king and my God.*

(R.) Alleluia!

1. I will give you glory, O God my King,
I will bless your name for ever.
I will bless you day after day
and praise your name for ever. (R.)
2. The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all his creatures.
(R.)
3. All your creatures shall thank you,
O Lord,
and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign
and declare your might, O God. (R.)
4. The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds.
The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down. (R.)

Second Reading Rom 8:9, 11-13

If by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body,
you will live.

Your interests are not in the unspiritual,
but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ
you would not belong to him, and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Gospel Acclamation See Mt 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;

you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mt 11:25-30

I am gentle and humble of heart.

Jesus exclaimed, 'I bless you, Father,
Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do. Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

'Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest.
Shoulder my yoke and learn from me,
for I am gentle and humble in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls. Yes,
my yoke is easy and my burden light.'

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate

In the Jewish story of the creation of Adam, the author has God fashion a figure of a human being out of damp earth, and then breathes into the nostrils of this clay figure. It becomes 'Adam'. In Hebrew, the word for breath, wind or Spirit is the same, so this story tells us that we become human when the Holy Spirit is breathed into our very being.

St Paul tells the early converts in Rome, those recently baptised, and therefore tells us who are baptised: 'The Spirit of God has made his home in you.'

Since your baptism, the Holy Spirit, the Breath of God, dwells in you in a special way. Baptism re-creates us, sharing in the life of the true Adam.

We could pause for a moment to pray:

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love.

NAIDOC WEEK

Welcome to this year's celebration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday. As we gather in faith, we do so as a people shaped by story — by the Gospel, by culture, and by the journeys that have brought us to this moment. We gather in the presence of God, who walks with us always, and who calls us into unity as one people. This year invites us into reflection.

We mark 40 years since St Pope John Paul II spoke to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples in Alice Springs, and we celebrate 50 years of NAIDOC Week. These milestones are more than anniversaries — they are reminders of enduring faith, resilience, and our shared call to walk together. At times, it is important to look back. Not to dwell in the past, but to recognise the path that has been travelled — to see the strength, the challenges, and the grace that have carried us forward. In this, we trust in God's providence, present in every step of our journey. Our theme, Walking Together in Christ: 40 Years On, speaks to this moment. It calls us to continue the journey with humility and hope - listening deeply, and walking side by side as one Body in Christ, guided by the Holy Spirit. Across this land, the Church is enriched by the cultures and voices of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples. Their spirituality, connection to Country, and deep sense of community continue to shape and strengthen the life of the Church in Australia. As St Pope John Paul II reminded us, the Church is enriched by the many cultures it embraces. This is not something we simply acknowledge — it is something we are called to live. Today's Liturgy is an invitation to listen to, reflect, and to encounter Christ in one another.

CATHOLIC MISSIONS - Special Collection

Propagation of the Faith

This weekend we will take up a special collection in support of the missions.

St Patrick's Macedon

On Wednesday 8th July, Shannon from Insure Build will be at St Patrick's Church in Macedon at 10am to explain the work needed to make the necessary repairs. If you would like to hear the extent of the repairs, please come along. This will be a sharing of information. No decisions will be made until we have the appropriate reports and costings.

Thanksgiving envelopes 2026-2027

Thank you to all parishioners who returned pledge cards both new and recurring. The new sets of TG envelopes are available in churches now. Some parishioners have had their TG number changed, please look for your surname rather than your number. An attempt has been made either by phone or email to advise you of these changes. You will note they are not dated as I have repurposed previously unused ones.

You may date them if you like but it is not necessary.

What's happening this week in the Parish

03/07/26 7pm – Holy Hour – Lancefield
04/07/26 10:30am – Anointing Mass – Romsey
11/07/26 10am – Reconciliation - Woodend

Note: See front page of bulletin for Mass times.

St Vincent de Paul Conference Gisborne - needs your help

The Gisborne Conference responds to the needs of those in the Macedon Ranges, which includes our three Parish Communities. Often their request for support involved food and clothing, a sign of the times has brought about a new area of support, firewood. The conference has had numerous requests for firewood to provide essential heating for those who may be struggling at this time of the year. They have run out of their current source of firewood. If anyone can help with a donation of firewood and kindling, please contact the Gisborne Parish Office on the following email: gisborne@cam.org.au.

Blessing with Holy Water.

During Gloria, Holy water will be used to bless all gathered. Holy Water is used as a reminder that in the waters of Baptism we are called to be sons and daughters of God. Water is also a precious gift given to this land and its people to nurture and sustain all.
