

The Combined Catholic Parishes of Kyneton and Trentham

Revealing the Kingdom together!

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year B

27th October 2024

First Reading: A reading from the prophet Jeremiah (Jeremiah 31:7-9)

The Lord says this:

Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations!
Proclaim! Praise! Shout: The Lord has saved his people,
the remnant of Israel! See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth;
all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour:
a great company returning here. They had left in tears,
I will comfort them as I lead them back;
I will guide them to streams of water,
by a smooth path where they will not stumble.
For I am a father to Israel,
and Ephraim is my first-born son.

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 125. R. v.3

(R.) The Lord has done great things for us;
we are filled with joy.

1. When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage,
It seemed like a dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
on our lips there were songs. (R.)
2. The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels
the Lord worked for them!'
What marvels the Lord worked for us!
Indeed we were glad. (R.)
3. Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage
as streams in dry land.
Those who are sowing in tears
will sing when they reap. (R.)
4. They go out, they go out, full of tears,
carrying seed for the sowing:
they come back, they come back, full of song,
carrying their sheaves. (R.)

Second Reading: A reading from the letter to the Hebrews (Hebrews 5:1-6)

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

Gospel Acclamation: See 2 Timothy 1:10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death, and brought us life through his gospel.

Alleluia!

Gospel: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (Mark 10:46-52)

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

The Gospel of the Lord

Thought of the Week

We are the dust, the dust that hopes,
a rising of dust, a thrill of dust,
the dust that dances in the light
with all other dust,
the dust that makes the world.

Next Friday heralds the beginning of the month of November and the month 'par excel lance', of remembering and remembrance!

Throughout this month we remember

- Those gone before us, those no longer with us
- Those who are caught up in the disease of grief and loss and bereavement
- Ourselves who journey with those who are on that pathway of Grief. May we realize that being present to another sometimes doesn't involve words or the overuse of pious platitudes. Just being there for the other is more than okay! and sometimes that is all that is needed

The Old Testament tells us that "It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for and remember the dead" (2 Maccabees 12:46). In honoring the dead and 'Sister Death' as Saint Francis of Assisi called it, we are honoring Christ himself because as Saint Paul tell us "We always carry around in our bodies the death of the Lord Jesus" (2 Corinthians 4:10)

World Mission Day Appeal – Mongolia Sunday 27th October

This week, you're invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia to help deliver essential services to people who need it most. Lack of access and social stigma mean that some of the most vulnerable people are not getting the support they require.

The House of Mercy will provide a haven for many people, including those affected by homelessness and domestic violence. Without your partnership, people in need will go without the assistance they require.

During World Mission Sunday, we are called to "Invite others to the banquet", and we invite you to share the warmth of God's love with our brothers and sisters who need it most in Mongolia. You can support this work by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/mongolia, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also assist many other Church programs around the world.

IN OUR PRAYERS

We continue to pray for the sick in our parish, including Fr. Brian MacMahon, Bernadette Ryan, Fr. Shane Hctor, Anthony and Adrienne Ryan, Mary Eppingstall, Bill O'Connell, Sara Little, Mark Hunter and John Vallance.

We pray for those who have died recently including Maureen Hubber and Evelyn Kayes and we pray for those who have died in any war torn countries.

We also pray for those whose anniversaries occur at this time including Bill Wilson.

Attention: All Volunteers

Our Volunteers are important to us. However, it is a requirement that all our volunteers partake in Safeguarding Essentials training. Volunteers are required to complete the training every three years. To access the online training, go to:- <https://safeguarding.melbournecatholic.org/s/login/?ec=302&startURL=%2Fs%2F>

This is a requirement from the Catholic Archdiocese of Melbourne along with a current WWCC and signed Code of Conduct and must be adhered to.

As of 31st December 2024, if any volunteer has not met all three of the above requirements, they will no longer be able to volunteer in any parish group such as Parish Pastoral Team, Combined Parish Financial Committee, Counters, Preloved Pedlar or St Mary's Op Shop, or volunteer in any roles at mass at Our Lady of the Rosary, Kyneton or St Mary Magdalen's, Trentham until we have received confirmation that all three requirements have been met.

If you require any assistance please contact the parish office. Thank you all for your understanding.
