VISITING CELEBRANTS

Any Catholic priest or deacon registered as a Marriage Celebrant in Australia, may officiate. You should include his name and contact number on your application form so that we may contact him. Your marriage celebrant will be responsible for the following:

MARRIAGE PAPERS/DOCUMENTS

In Australia, a priest/celebrant acts on behalf of both the Commonwealth and the Church. He will explain what certificates you need to produce and will complete all documentation for you. It is important to see him early as "The Notice of Intended Marriage" must be completed not more than eighteen months and not less than one month before marriage.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION

It is strongly recommended that a couple attend a pre-marriage education program. These programs open up for discussion and consider many issues, which contribute to a happy and successful marriage. There are several programs available. Your celebrant will guide you on your choice.

WEDDING BOOKLET (ORDER OF SERVICE)

He will guide you in the selection of prayers and scripture. Since a Wedding (Ceremony or Nuptial Mass) is the liturgy of the Church, the booklet must be in accord with "The Rite of Marriage approved for use in Australia".

Before printing your wedding booklet, you must submit a copy to the Celebrant for approval.
