26th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sunday 27 September—Year A

THE LOVE OF GOD FOR ALL

To accept that God first loved us, through no merits or our own,
and that God is always there for us,
although we forget God,
is more difficult for us
than following God's commandments.

To accept that God loves us just as we are,
unconditionally, gratuitously, and forever,
is more difficult for us
than to repent of the evil we have done.

To accept this love of God is the only path to freedom and interior peace.
and it is the underlying reason why we should accept each other and love each other just as we are.

Segundo Galilea, The Music of God

Instead of seeking comfort and pleasure, we accept the anguish that is felt when one loves. Instead of being known and beloved for our greatness, we become smaller and more humble. This 'being for others' is the mission of all Christians.

WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

This year we celebrate the 112th World Day of Migrants and Refugees on the 27th of September 2026. The theme focuses on children who are involved in Global movements of migration. We can often neglect this important area. We frequently find the articulations of adults who are Migrants and Refugees and their plight. We tend to forget the children involved. We see on the television and in social media the unspoken presence of young children gathering around their parents but saying nothing. Their faces often look blank and traumatised. This is what the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, is asking us to reflect on this year. Indeed, it is the Pope's message which declares, "Minors are the most vulnerable group within the global movements of migration. They are concrete faces, who have unique stories, and call on our conscience." The Pope also lauds the efforts of volunteers and aid workers "who each day devote themselves to healing the invisible wounds of these little ones along migration routes and in our cities." Our responsibility in our community and in Australia in general, is to go out of our way to be attentive to this often invisible and voiceless dimension of Migrants and Refugees. The Pope, towards the end of his message, notes the interreligious dimension of our care for Migrant and Refugee children. He notes, "the vulnerability of the young knows no religious boundaries and unites us in a shared humanitarian and spiritual responsibility. This becomes fertile ground for a concrete interreligious dialogue."
