Reflection 6th Sunday of Easter John 14:15-21

I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate.

What is an advocate? An advocate is someone who argues for a cause; he or she is a supporter or a defender. You can also think of an advocate as a counsellor, one who gives advice.

In today's Gospel, Jesus reassures us that we will never be alone. He tells us that he is sending an advocate who will be with us and guide us: the Holy Spirit! The Holy Spirit will always support us. When you need someone to defend you, you can call on the Holy Spirit. Sometimes you might be unable to make a decision or choose between right and wrong, and you need help in making the right choice. The Holy Spirit will be your counsellor. What a wonderful gift Jesus has given to us! The Holy Spirit is truly God's gift.
