First Reading

Ezekiel 18:25-28

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

The sinner who decides to turn against sinfulness deserves to live.

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: 'You object, "What the Lord does is unjust." Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die.'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 24:4-9. R. v.6

(R.) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

1. Lord, make me know your ways. Lord, teach me your paths.

Make me walk in your truth, and teach me: for you are God my saviour. (R.)

2. Remember your mercy, Lord, and the love you have shown from of old.

Do not remember the sins of my youth.

In your love remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord. (R.)

3. The Lord is good and upright.

He shows the path to those who stray, he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. (R.)

Second Reading

Philippians 2:1-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus.

If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus:

His state was divine, yet he did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are; and being as all men are,

he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.

But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim

Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel Acclamation

John 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!
My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord;
I know them, and they follow me.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 21:28-32

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

He went out moved by regret. The tax collectors and prostitutes will precede you into the kingdom of God.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, "My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today." He answered, "I will not go," but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, "Certainly, sir," but did not go. Which of the two did the father's will?' 'The first' they said. Jesus said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him.'

Communion Antiphon

Cf Psalm 118:49-50

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord,
by which you have given me hope.
This is my comfort when I am brought low.

"I AM THE VINE"
"YOU ARE THE BRANCHES"

John 15:5

Living the gospel

Saying "Yes!"

In many ways, it is easy to say 'Yes' and not really mean it. Some people do it all the time in their lives. They say 'Yes' when they have no intention at all of following through on their commitment. It's easy to say 'Yes' and not mean it when it comes to faith as well. It's pretty easy to turn up at Church on a Sunday and be seen to be doing the 'right' thing. But if our faith doesn't change the way we live, then maybe we're really saying 'No' to God.

Gospel reflection

This week's gospel passage is one of many within Matthew's gospel that show Jesus at odds with the religious authorities of his day. The picture of the religious leaders that comes through Matthew's gospel is one of hypocrisy. Jesus is frequently portrayed as criticising the leaders for holding too strongly to the letter of the law and ignoring the spirit of the law and the call to compassion. This week's passage has Jesus seeking the opinion of the chief priests and elders on a hypothetical situation (a common style of debating a point of law in the Jewish tradition). He describes two sons, each asked by their father to go and work in the family vineyard. The first says 'No' but later does his father's bidding. The second says 'Yes' but doesn't follow through on his commitment. Jesus is criticising the religious leaders of his time who, with their words, said 'Yes' to God but by their actions said 'No'. He most certainly would have upset the leaders by telling them that tax collectors and prostitutes would enter the kingdom of God before them. Whilst these tax collectors and prostitutes were regarded by the religious authorities as 'sinners' beyond redemption, Jesus holds them up in the image of the first son of the story. Although they may have said 'No' to God through their poor choices, ultimately, they are saying 'Yes' to God in their acceptance of Jesus and the message of the kingdom of God. On the other hand, the leaders have said 'Yes' to God publicly through abiding by all the religious laws and maintaining a 'religious profile' but in their hearts and actions they have not truly said 'Yes!'

From the perspective of ... A Tax Collector

Hey, Jesus is talking about me again! I love it when he says that I'm better than some of those stuck-up chief priests. All my life they've looked down on me; pretending they're better than me. I've seen the way some of them behave when they think no one's watching! They're no better than me! And Jesus says that people like me will enter the kingdom before people like them! Yes! I know I've done the wrong thing plenty of times – Jesus has helped me to see that. Maybe that's what makes me different from those priests; I don't pretend that I've never done anything wrong.

Historical Context – Chief Priests and Tax Collectors

Only men of the Israelite tribe of Levi could become Priests and Levites. Men from the other eleven tribes were prohibited. It was not a religious 'call' but rather a fact of birth that led men to be priests. The chief priests and high priest performed all the rituals in the Temple in Jerusalem – it was they who performed sacrifices on behalf of others. They were very important and influential. Tax collectors were regarded poorly because they acted on behalf of the Romans – collecting revenue for an occupying and pagan force. They made their living by collecting extra amounts. They were looked down upon by most people.

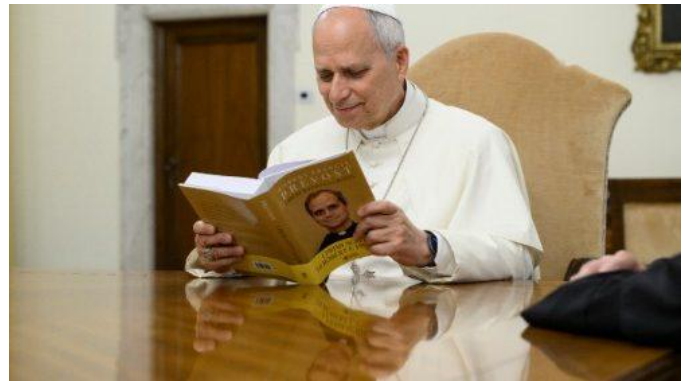

The Pope Leo XIV's "Freedom Under Grace" released in English

Pope Leo XIV's book "Freedom Under Grace" hits bookshelves in English, bringing together his reflections on the legacy of St. Augustine that has shaped his spirituality. Vatican News

The English version of Pope Leo XIV's book "Freedom Under Grace: Reflections on the Spiritual Tradition That Formed Me," went on sale on Tuesday, September 15, in the US, UK, Australia, and across the Commonwealth.

"Freedom Under Grace" brings together the Holy Father's reflections on the legacy of St. Augustine that have shaped his spirituality and vision for the world.

In addition to being the first-ever Pope from the Order of Saint Augustine, this book is of special interest to English-language readers, bringing to light the unique insights and perspective of the Church's first American Pope whose mother tongue is English.

According to a press release from Penguin Random House, the book contains addresses, homilies, and personal writings from Fr. Robert Prevost's time as Prior General of the Order of St. Augustine, revealing the "why" behind his contemplative responses.

The future Pope Leo XIV "invites readers to sit at the table, as if in real time, responding to the aftermath of 9/11, emerging political ideologies, and the Church's response to poverty and human rights conflicts."

"Drawing from the work of St. Augustine, whom he calls his spiritual father," notes the press release, Pope Leo "advances a vision for life rooted in community, solidarity, and service to marginalized communities."

The English version of "Freedom Under Grace" is published in the US by Image Books, an imprint of the Penguin Random House Christian Publishing Group.

In the UK and Australia, the book is published by the Enliven imprint of Penguin Random House UK.

The original Italian was published by the Vatican Publishing House (LEV) under the title "Liberi sotto la Grazia."

The audiobook edition will feature opening homilies and addresses read by Emmy award-winning comedian and devout Catholic Stephen Colbert, and the main text will be narrated by award-winning narrator and Grammy nominee Scott Brick.

RCIA

What is the RCIA?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is the normal way in which adults become full active, participating members of the Catholic Church.

The goal of the process is full communion which means “full active participation” in the Eucharist and in the whole life of the Catholic faith community.

RCIA helps adults to grow in their relationship with God, become familiar with Catholic teachings and practices, get acquainted with people in the community and get involved in service within the community.

Many persons who want to join the Catholic Church have already been baptised in another Christian Church. They must attend the sessions but do not need to be baptised again.

2026 - 2027

Jokes of the Week

1) The RESCUE: A man was stranded on a deserted island for ten years. When a rescue boat finally arrived, the captain noticed three large bamboo buildings the man had constructed. The captain asked, "What is that first building?" The man proudly replied, "That's my house!" "And the second building?" "That's my church. I love it there." The captain looked at the third building. "Then what is that last one?" The man sniffed dramatically and said, "Oh, that's the church I used to go to."

2) The Speeding Ticket: A minister was pulled over for speeding. The police officer walked up to the window, smelled alcohol on the minister's breath, and noticed an empty wine bottle on the passenger seat. The officer asked, "Sir, have you been drinking?" The minister looked up innocently and said, "Just water, officer." The officer frowned. "Then why do I smell wine, and what is in that bottle?" The minister looked down at the bottle, gasped, and shouted, "Good heavens! He's done it again!"

3) The Driver's Theology: A priest and a bus driver both died and went to heaven. Saint Peter escorted the bus driver to a massive, luxurious mansion with a pool and a view. Then, he took the priest to a tiny, one-room cabin. The priest was confused. "Wait a minute, Saint Peter. I spent 40 years preaching the gospel, and this driver just drove a bus. Why does he get a palace?" Saint Peter smiled and said, "Up here, we go by results. When you preached, people slept. But when he drove, everyone prayed!"

Parish Footy Tipping Competition

Pauline Peters and Teresa were our best tippers last week with 2/2 and the closest winning margin. They won $25 each. In our season's competition, Teresa finished one in front of Pauline with another one to Delina and one more to Lachlan, Irene, Howard's Hawks and Bardo22 followed by Kees, Maree, The Wizard and Rons Pies.

Do you know who are Fremantle's 2 Hall of Fame members or Brisbane's 7? What about Freo's 1 Brownlow medallist or Brisbane's 4? How about the 4 Rising Star winners from Freo or the 4 from Brisbane?

As the season ends James Barrett and Spencer Meier thank everyone of our 45 tippers for their interest this year. Now we look forward to 2027.

Public Rosary – Sat. 10th Oct 10am

Once again, our Parish will join with hundreds of Parishes around Australia in praying the Rosary.

St. Louis de Montfort said, "Public prayer is more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and to call down His mercy, and the Church, guided by the Holy Spirit has always advocated it in times of disaster and general distress."

We shall gather outside (weather permitting!) in the Rose garden under the statue of Our Blessed Mother.

Seats will be provided and all are invited to a morning cuppa in the Community Centre.

The 2026 March for the Babies commences at

This is the 18th annual peace walk to protest the current abortion laws in Victoria.

Since 2008 abortion has been legal up to birth.

The walk is to raise awareness, show solidarity and send the message to our politicians that all babies' lives matter and must be protected!

Catechism of the Catholic Church: 2270

“Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life.”⁷² Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born, I consecrated you.⁷³ My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately wrought in the depths of the earth.”⁷⁴
