FIRST READING

Isaiah 5:1-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Let me sing to my friend the song of his love for his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.
He dug the soil, cleared it of stones, and planted choice vines in it.
In the middle he built a tower, he dug a press there too.
He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave.
And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me.
What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done? I expected it to yield grapes.
Why did it yield sour grapes instead?
Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard:
I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on.
I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug; overgrown by the briar and the thorn. I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it.
Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant.
He expected justice, but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The Word of the Lord.

R: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 79:9. 12-16.19-20.R Is 5:7

(R.) The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel

1. You brought a vine out of Egypt;
to plant it you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea,
to the Great River it stretched out its shoots. (R.)
2. Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
devoured by the beasts of the field. (R.)
3. God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted. (R.)
4. And we shall never forsake you again:
give us life that we may call upon your name.
God of hosts, bring us back;
let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. (R.)

SECOND READING

Philippians 4:6-9

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

The Word of the Lord.

R: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 21:33-43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son," he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:
It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see? 'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

The Gospel of the Lord

R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

When: Saturday, 24 October 2026 at 11am

Duration: Approximately 1½ hours

Cost: Free

Venue: Good Shepherd Church

The session will be led by two qualified psychologists and social workers, together with Fr Andrew & Fr Jean-Sebastien. The seminar will cover:

- The main types of mental illness.
- Treatment and care options.
- Factors that may increase the risk of mental illness.
- What can help protect our mental health.
- The connection between good spiritual health and good mental health.
- How to support a friend or family member in your care.

How to look after your own mental health and remain well. Everyone is warmly welcome.

Our parishes are committed to the safety, wellbeing and human dignity of children, young people and adults.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A

Isaiah 5:1 - 725:6-10; , Philipians 4:12-14, 19-20; Mt 22:1-14:

FR JEAN-SEBASTIEN'S NEW APPOINTMENT

Last week, I celebrated my second anniversary of priesthood in the foyer of Good Shepherd Church among the marvelous people of God. Besides the smell of party pies and freshly baked cakes, I could also smell that my time was up. For his first taste of ministry, a newly ordained priest is usually given 18 months to two years in his first appointment, sometimes three.

My senses did not deceive me: the food was as promising as the smell, and the announcement of my new assignment arrived in the e-mail a week later from the Vicar General. I have been appointed as Assistant Priest in Gladstone Park, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, effective from 14 October.

Although sad to leave, I am immensely grateful for your friendship and encouragement. I have enjoyed every single day at St Justin's and Good Shepherd, serving two parishes, one mission. The same mission that leads us to encounter one another across parish boundaries is now calling me to encounter new communities across the Archdiocese.

Please keep me in your prayers, as I keep you in mine.

Each week, we'll journey through a different set of Mysteries

- Week 1 - 10 Oct, Joyful Mysteries
- Week 1 - 17 Oct, Sorrowful Mysteries
- Week 1 - 24 Oct, Glorious Mysteries
- Week 1 - 31 Oct, Luminous Mysteries

Please join the rosary on 10th October at 6.00pm

ST JUSTIN'S FAIR ON THE HILL

Dear Parishioners,

Welcome to St Justin's Fair on the Hill

We're excited to invite you to one of the highlights of the St Justin's community calendar – St Justin's Fair on the Hill. Taking place on Saturday, 7th November 2026 11.00am to 4.00pm.

For those who are new to our parish, the Fair on the Hill is a wonderful annual celebration that brings together our school, parish and wider community for a fun-filled day.

There's something for everyone, including rides, games, an animal farm, pony rides, our Major Raffle, fruit and vegetable stall, second-hand books and toys, Cake Stall, Choc Toss, Lucky Jars, Devonshire Tea, food and community stalls, and more! Most importantly, the Fair is a great opportunity to come together, meet others and enjoy the wonderful community spirit that makes St Justin's so special.

Want to get involved?

There are lots of ways to be part of the fair, whether you're able to lend a hand on the day or contribute from home.

Bake for Cake Stall

Our much-loved Cake stall is always a favourite! If you enjoy baking, we'd love your help with cakes, cupcakes, slices, biscuits or muffins. Please see the attached Cake Stall Donation Flyer for more information.

Volunteer on the day

It takes a wonderful team of volunteers to bring the Fair to life. Whether you can spare an hour or stay for the day, we'd love to have you involved. Please see the attached Volunteer Flyer for details on how you can sign up.

Every contribution, big or small, helps make the Fair a success and, in turn, helps us raise funds to support and enhance our St Justin's Community, Church, School grounds, Classrooms and Facilities.

We'd love for our parishioners, both new and long-standing, to come along, get involved and enjoy the day with us. Bring your family, invite your friends and help us make Fair on the Hill 2026 another fantastic community celebration!
