Celebrating NAIDOC Week

"If we can walk together, if we can talk to one another, if we can understand one another, then we can have a better future."

~ Lowitja O'Donoghue ~

NAIDOC Week is a special time to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. It is a chance to learn more about Australia's First Nations peoples and to show respect for their rich traditions and deep connection to the land.

Throughout the week, people come together to enjoy music, dance, art, storytelling and community events. These activities help us better understand the wisdom, strength and contributions of First Nations peoples, both in the past and today.

NAIDOC Week also reminds us that we all have a part to play in building respect, kindness and understanding. By listening to one another, learning from different cultures and appreciating our shared home, we help create a stronger and more caring community.

As we celebrate NAIDOC Week, let us honour the past, value the present and look to the future with hope.

Dear Lord, help us to respect and value the cultures of our First Nations peoples. Open our hearts to listen, learn and appreciate their stories, wisdom and traditions. Guide us to walk together with kindness, understanding and peace, building a future of hope and unity. Amen.

Synod Corner

Synodality and the margins

A synodal Church pays attention to voices often overlooked: the poor, the wounded, the disaffected, and those who feel distant from the Church. Their experiences matter, and their stories can teach us where renewal is most needed.

Time Out Gathering

A great opportunity for older members of the parish to get together.

We meet and share a lunch in the narthex at 12 noon on the 3rd Wednesday of the month

On the 1st Wed. we gather to Dine Out at a local venue. (contact Alan/ Maree 0467 683 051)

Bookshelf in the Narthex

It's good to see people borrowing books from, and donating books to, the bookshelf in the Narthex. If you are donating books, please remember they must be Christian books.

If you wish to donate any other kind of books, please hold on to them until our fete in October.

Stewardship Corner

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." - MATTHEW 11:30

When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.
